

Personal Biography of
Bill Thibodeau

Bill Thibodeau was born in the East Coast of Canada (Nova Scotia) and came to live in Saskatchewan in the late 90's after completed an university degree and obtaining a Bachelor of Education.

Bill taught public school in Saskatoon for over 10 years until 2009 when he switched careers and now works for the Saskatchewan Abilities Council as a coordinator for the Farmers with Disabilities program. Bill finds this new path a challenging but rewarding one, the duties include arranging peer mentorship between farmers throughout Saskatchewan and teaching school children about the dangers of farm life.

Bill has embraced the Prairie Lifestyle that he now calls home. He and his wife Lisa, a prairie girl, have settled down near the town Clavet, not far from Lisa's parents' farm. Bill's hobbies include snowmobiling, atving, camping and hunting with Max the family labrador retriever.

Bill has been involved with the Saskatoon Snowmobile Club since 1998 and has been on the SSC board of directors as the trail committee chair. Bill has attended groomer workshops and spends some time grooming the trails for the club in "Brutus" the club's BR400. Currently Bill is the past president of the SSC and was president when the SSC had the pleasure of hosting the SSA Festival in 2004.
