

Personal Biography of
Bill Ziegler

Bill Ziegler was born & raised at Big River, Saskatchewan and the family eventually moved to Saskatoon. Bill has been involved in the furniture Upholstery Business for most of his working life and currently owns & operates City Upholstery Centre in Saskatoon. Bill has a son Jason and daughter Sherri (Alex) all living and working in Saskatoon.

Bill's hobbies & interests include hunting, fishing, snowmobiling, motorcycling, Atv'ing, golfing, photography and "adventure camping". He loves the outdoors and you will often find him and his partner Verna "exploring" the backwoods of the Nisbet & Big River Forests on snowmobile and/or ATV.

Membership in the Saskatoon Snowmobile Club began in 1980 and continues to this day. He is currently President and served as Chairman for the 2003-04 Provincial Snowmobile Festival. Bill joined the Saskatchewan Snowmobile Association in 1987 and served as a director in various capacities ever since. He "chaired" the first two SSA Snowmobile Trade Shows in Saskatoon and contributed greatly to their successes. Bill is also a member of the Land Use Advisory Committee for the Nisbet Forest, representing the interests of Snowmobilers & ATV'ers in this study.
