Clayton Rienks

Clayton Rienks was born and raised in Broadview. He now lives in Broadview with his wife, Candace & 2 daughters Kayla & Kaitlin. His oldest daughter, Jenna lives in Alberta with her mom.

Clayton has been into sledding since he bought his first used sled when he was 12 years old (1974 Rolo Flex Wild One) he has since up graded many times. He currently rides a Yamaha Warrior.

Clayton changed careers last year to be home more for his family. From being a long haul trucker owning 2 trucks to being a grader operator for the RM, which has him home nightly. Working for the RM gives him the winters off where he finds himself putting up signs for his club (Broadview Snow Busters).

Being home has enabled Clayton to join some other volunteer organizations; such as fire fighter, and Broadview Wildlife.

Sledding, by far, is Clayton's favorite hobby but he also likes his quad, crotch rocket, and camping.
