

Personal Biography Of
George Belchamber

George Belchamber was born and raised on a farm south of Nipawin. George is married to his wife, Wendy. He has been a heavy duty mechanic for 25 years and has worked in the forest industry and on several large construction projects. The Nipawin hydroelectric project, COOP heavy oil up grader, Manitoba hydro Limestone project and Saskferco fertilizer plant to name a few.

George has been very involved in his community and the province in a volunteer capacity. His involvement includes; the only founding member in the Twin Lakes Trail Blazers snowmobile club in which he served at several levels; the Nipawin Exhibition, from grounds maintenance to president that he is at present; Nipawin economical development committee; Central park planning committee; Fort a la Corne land use plan; RM of Torch River land use plan; Community justice program; Citizens on patrol program; Nipawin snowmobile safety advisory committee and now Alderman for the town of Nipawin.

He is also involved with the Saskatchewan Snowmobile Association as Vice President. He has been chairman of trails workshops for several years, chairman of the provincial snowmobile festival and worked on insurance for some time. Interests include snowmobiling, hunting, fishing, boating, cooking, farming, motor sports and telling the odd joke.