

Personal Biography of
Kelsey Lockert

Kelsey was raised in Vibank, SK, after graduating from the high school there she moved to Regina and started going to the University of Regina taking classes in the Department of Arts. After taking a year of university and still being undecided about what to take, Kelsey decided to enter the work field. She tried out a few different jobs until she found her place with Saskatchewan Snowmobile Association in April, 2010.

Kelsey enjoys playing a number of sports but mostly baseball. She also loves going home to Vibank and doing things around the farm, like seeding, harvesting, riding horse and many other things. Kelsey loves being outside, she enjoys doing many outdoor activities such as snowmobiling, quading, and fishing.